

House Resolution No. 1991

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding Missouri citizen who has distinguished herself through excellence in education; and

Whereas, Margaret "Maggie" Andrews, an esteemed resident of Belton, Missouri, will officially retire from the Raymore-Peculiar R-II School District on July 1, 2004, after a stellar career in education that has spanned many wonderful years; and

Whereas, Maggie Andrews has successfully completed the many duties and tasks placed before her throughout her impressive tenure as a Teacher with the Raymore-Peculiar R-II School District for seventeen years, during which time she has played an integral role in the educational development of countless youngsters at Timber Creek, Shull Elementary School, and Raymore Elementary School; and

Whereas, a former educator with the Sikeston and Kansas City public schools, Maggie Andrews has served as a Text Mentor for Avila University, Cooperation Teacher for Student Teachers, and member of several Building and District committees, and has received such honors as Outstanding Science Educator recognition in 1993 and the 2002 Wal-Mart Teacher of the year award; and

Whereas, Maggie Andrews is exceedingly proud of her affiliation with such important organizations as the National Education Association, International Reading Association, and the P.E.O. Sisterhood; and

Whereas, Maggie Andrews looks forward to her retirement so that she can spend more quality time pursuing her favorite hobbies which include quilting, gardening, scrap booking, and square dancing; and

Whereas, Maggie Andrews has been abundantly blessed with a large and loving family whose members include her devoted husband, Rick L. Andrews, and her two sons, Todd and Paul Andrews:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in expressing our utmost appreciation to Maggie Andrews for her many years of unparalleled service to the Raymore-Peculiar R-II School District and to the education of Missouri's youngest citizens, and in wishing her the long, enjoyable retirement she so richly deserves; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Margaret "Maggie" Andrews.
